HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Minneapolis Hibernians held their twenty-third annual picnic last Sunday.
It was well attended and all sorts of Gaelic games were indulged in.

The Irish Christian Brothers have appealed to the Hibernians of America to assist them in raising funds for a novitiate and training college to cost $200,- 000.

In Baltimore the members of the order have arranged for an Irish field day and celebration on August 6. One of the main features will be the attendance of a band of Irish harpers.

An excursion will be run to Buffalo from Toronto and Hamilton, Canada, today by the Canadian Hibernians. Members of the order from Buffalo, Hamilton and Toronto will take part in the street parade.

The picnic and Irish field day held under the auspices of the joint divisions of Onondaga county, N. Y., was held at Long Branch, near Syracuse, on Friday of last week and proved to be a magnificent success.

The annual Irish field day of members of the order in Steuben county, N. Y., will be held next Thursday. In addition to the other games there will be a game of base ball between teams from Cor-nellville and Horning.

In disposing of a question that arose in Pawtucket, R. I., National President James B. Dolan decides that it is perfectly proper for members of the order, individually and collectively, to celebrate the anniversary of Robert Emmet.

Dr. Joseph A. Smith, of Worcester, Mass., has been presented with a handsome gold-jeweled emblem by the ladies of Auxiliary 11. Dr. Smith has been drilling the ladies' degree team, which is now considered one of the most efficient in the country.

THE ORPHANS

Of St. Joseph's Asylum to Be Benefitted by a Picnic and Outing.

The St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum Society has decided to give a picnic and outing on the asylum grounds, Crescent Hill, July 22. The society met at St.
Martin's Hall last Sunday afternoon, with President Frank A. Geher in the chair. Nearly every member was present and it was the unanimous voice of the society that determined upon this picnic.

This picnic and outing will not be given for the purpose of making money, but to call in reunion the friends of St.
Joseph's Orphan Asylum and show them what progress the institution has made during the past year. Of course it is expected that many people not members of the St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum Society will attend this picnic. There they will see what has been done and is being done for these fatherless and motherless little ones, and it may be the means of inducing many to join the society.

St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum Society held a second meeting Thursday night, at which time a plan of procedure for the picnic was outlined. Every German Catholic parish in the city was represented.

ST. PHILIP NERI'S PICNIC.

An enjoyable event will be the annual picnic given by the people of St. Philip Neri's congregation at Phoenix Hill Park on the afternoon and evening of July 16. Supper will be served from 4:30 to 8:30 in the evening. The young ladies of the parish will entertain their friends with a game of progressive euchre from 3 until 5 o'clock p. m. This euchre will be made a very attractive feature.
St. Philip Neri's people are devoted to their pastor and are striving to make this picnic a grand success.

WEDDINGS.

Fred Schwenker, Jr., and Miss Pauline Schmidt, well known young people, were married at St. Boniface church at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. After the ceremony they held a reception at 524 East Madison street. Mr. Schwenker is engaged in the grocery business. His bride moved here from Junction City recently.

Gus J. Bretz and Miss Emma Belle Kennedy were united in matrimony at St. Louis Bertrand church at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The Very Rev.
Father Fowler performed the ceremony.
Mr. and Mrs. Bretz left for Cincinnati Tuesday evening, where they will spend a few days. On their return they will begin housekeeping at 719 West St.
Catherine street. The bride is the pretty and accomplished daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kennedy. Mr.
Bretz is a popular traveling salesman.

FERN GROVE.

As ev'ning shades their mantles threw Around sweet Fern Grove
I stood upon her breezy cliffs And viewed the scenes below; Those islands grand, Ohio's stream, E'er moving without sound; I've seen from Indiana's cliffs
The dark and bloody ground.

The pyramids on Egypt's plains Have withstood the frosts of time, And Fern cliffs, like the round towers That dot old Ireland's clime, Could tell some tales of days gone by That now are wrapped in gloom, When the red man passed her mossy cliffs In his frail but swift canoe.

What strange, sad stories they could tell, These sentinels of time!
What passed beside them on that stream Since they were in their prime;
The frail canoe, the pioneer's raft,
The triumph of Fulton's dream, Dashing its waves upon the bank On its way to the great Gulf stream.

What scenes of mirth and pleasure They have seen in later days!
The glad shouts of boys and girls Among the many pretty bays, And Cupid, too, has sought her height And there in manly pride, Youth hand in hand with sweetheart Climbed Fern Grove's rugged side.
FINEGAN.

In its extreme forms the new loose coat is a luxurious garment. Even when simply made it suggests elegance. It must be worn with an air, it must be well cut, it must be of good material, it must be worn with cloth that harmonizes with it.

NEW FIELDS

For Investment of Capital Are Being Sought by Mr.
Meagher.

John Meagher, one of Louisville's most substantial Irish-American citizens, will leave tomorrow for a prospecting tour in Mexico. Mr. Meagher with his family removed to Louisville from Frankfort several months ago. While he had many friends in Louisville before he became a resident of this city, he has increased them tenfold since he made this his home. Mr. Meagher retired from the distilling business in Frankfort a short time ago. He has funds invested in Mexico and now intends to enlarge his interests by further investments if he finds the field profitable. Mr. Meagher believes that he can profit by investing in an up-to-date distillery and a fruit canning plant. Mr. Meagher will be gone a month and will visit thirteen States in the republic of Mexico.

INVESTITURE

Of Archbishop Farley of New York Will Take Place
This Month.

The formal investiture of the Most Rev. Archbishop Farley, of New York, will take place in St. Patrick's Cathedral on July 23. The pallium will be bestowed at a Pontifical mass. His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons will confer the insignia. All of the Bishops of the province of New York will attend and eleven Archbishops are expected to be present. Bishop McQuaid, of Rochester, will preach the sermon.

Following the church ceremonies a banquet will be given at the diocesan rectory. More than 1,000 guests will dine. Monsignor Farrelly will arrive from Rome with the pallium next week.

NEW PLACE

Handsomely Furnished Has Been Opened by William Borgmann.

William Borgmann, the distillers' agent and wholesale and retail dealer in whiskies, wines and cigars, has opened a new establishment at 214, 216 and 218 Seventh street and will be glad to meet his friends there. Mr. Borgmann was for a number of years in business at the northwest corner of Fifth and Green streets. He has always been a thrifty and energetic business man. The new place he has fitted up is one of the finest in the city. It is one of those places where the patron helps himself and pays the proprietor for what he gets. Mr. Borgmann's place is close to Main street and about a block from the Seventh-street Union depot.
With this location, his great personal following and an admirable stock of goods, Mr. Borgmann ought to meet with success in his new venture. A buffet lunch will be open to patrons.

BIG BARBECUE

To Be Given by the Local Butchers' Union at Phoenix Hill Park.

The Butchers' Union, No. 1, will give its third annual barbecue and picnic at Phoenix Hill Park on the afternoon and evening of Sunday, July 19. The Committee on Arrangements is made up of Gottlieb Layer, Peter Herberger, William R. Schaefer, William Kurz, B. Zoepfel, Jacob Frank and George P. Conrad.

The main feature of the affair will be the burgoo or barbecued meats. The Committee on Arrangements will have two head of cattle, one dozen sheep, one dozen hogs and many chickens killed and dressed for the burgoo and barbecue.
Charles Bornwasser and Fred E. Hoerter will be the manager and assistant manager respectively. No charge will be made for the burgoo or barbecued meats.
A charge of twenty-five cents will be made at the park gates for the purpose of keeping out objectionable characters.

The Butchers' Union is one of the oldest and strongest in Louisville. Its picnics and outings are always delightful and every one is made to feel at home. This year everything has been done to make the outing more successful than ever.

HONORS FOR FATHER MOONEY.

It is being currently rumored that Archbishop Farley, of New York, will have an auxiliary Bishop. The same rumor has it that the honor will fall to Vicar General Mooney, one of New York's ablest and most popular clergymen.
